

UW BADGER BAND SPRING CONCERT

Tour 13532

Thursday • April 19, 2018

On March 21, 1975, Professor Michael Leckrone created a monster...the UW Varsity Band's Annual Spring Concert. On that day, before an unexpectedly large audience of about 450 family, friends and fans in Mills Hall, the UW Band got everyone together to put on one final performance for the year and then...

have a party! No one would have guessed that the concert performed that night would turn into what it is today...a three-night extravaganza complete with professional staging, lighting, sound and pyrotechnics performed for 25,000 Badger fans. The spirit Mike Leckrone infuses into the UW Band is extraordinary. He tells his students to above all have fun...and they do. In the past you saw Mike "fly" onto the stage on a life-size red and white cow and had the band perform with Tom Wopat. How does the UW Badger Band and Leckrone plan to top that this year? You have to join us at the Kohl Center for the Annual Spring Concert to find out!

What Mike Leckrone, his production staff and the Badger Band accomplish each April is extraordinary. No other college band puts on such a professional production for one night, much less three, the way the Wisconsin Band family does. But, then again, there's no other band like the University of Wisconsin Marching Band... "when you've said Wisconsin, you've said it all!"

We also enjoy dinner together before we head off to the Kohl Center for this late evening performance. Please be aware that this tour returns home very late at night. D
