

FASCHING FEAST AND DORF KAPELLE'S GREAT SING-ALONG SHOW Sheboygan Falls

Tour 12087

Sunday • February 19, 2012

Fasching, Fastnacht, Fastnet, Karneval, Carneval and Mardi Gras. No matter what you call it, many cultures throughout the world celebrate the pre-Lenten season with elaborate celebrations and revelry. Whether intended as one last fling before the fasting and austerity of Lent or just to scare away the evil spirits of winter, we gather together at Laack's Hall in Johnsonville, WI, for the Annual Fasching Feast and Show. The merriment begins as you enter the Great Fasching Fest Hall (reminiscent of the great bier halls of Germany) and select one of the fine imported biers or weins or perhaps a little Jagermeister to warm your tummy on a chilly February day! Then take a seat and prepare yourself for a feast fit for a king. Mad King Ludwig himself would be impressed! Enjoy an afternoon with great German food, spirits and special entertainment by Dorf Kapelle including polkas, waltzes and marches. L
